

Congregate Supervisor

FamilyAid Boston, the city's largest human service agency solely focused on ending childhood and family homelessness, is seeking a Supervisor for the provision of high-quality case management services and the successful operation of FamilyAid Boston congregate shelter program.

This position will serve in a leadership role on a team whose primary focus is to 2 generation stabilization services and house homeless parents and their children. In addition to hiring, supervising and evaluating case managers, the program supervisor works with the Director and other program leadership to ensure successful implementation of agency, state, and program policies and practices and services to current and formerly homeless parents and their children.

The successful candidate will have an, MSW degree with supervisory experience required, LICSW preferred, 5+ years of professional management experience, familiarity working in a clinical setting, bicultural background, experience in managing and leading teams, budgets and diverse funding streams, demonstrated success in applying evidence-based practices including trauma-informed care, critical time intervention and motivational interviewing and experience in homelessness prevention and diversion programing.

With a mission to empower parents facing homelessness to secure and sustain housing and build foundations for their children's futures, FamilyAid is on a fast track to curb the region's growing homelessness crisis. Its nationally recognized homelessness prevention, diversion, emergency shelter, and supportive affordable housing programs serve more than 2,000 children and parents each year.

FamilyAid Boston is dynamic, friendly, and diverse where results, professional growth and work/life balance are valued. We offer competitive salaries, contribute to employees' health, dental and retirement plans, and provide generous paid time off. The agency is committed to a policy of equal employment opportunity without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, disability, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or age.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume to hr@familyaidboston.org. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.