

JVS Financial Coaching

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs):

1

Are financial coaching sessions confidential?

Financial coaching sessions are confidential and a judgement-free zone where clients can address their financial concerns .

2

How long/often are coaching sessions?

Coaching sessions are fully dependent on the client's financial needs and goals. However, JVS has a financial coaching model that organizes meetings into five coaching sessions, each addressing a different topic.

3

Is my financial information secure with coaches?

Data security is a high priority of JVS. We have a responsibility to keep every client's information private and secure.

4

How do I get started?

It's easy! Book a free 15-minute call with a JVS coach to discuss your financial goals and plans. Our coaches are certified as financial coaches to provide clients with this free service to improve your financial concerns.