

Heat Pump Specialty and HVAC Basics Training

JVS and Franklin Cummings Tech are offering a 6-week full-time in-person training which will include job readiness training and employment support for graduates.

Program Information:

Participants will be enrolled in a 6-week training program including customized Job Readiness Training with JVS Boston; classes will be held Monday to Thursday 8am to 4pm

Participants will receive (3) certifications OSHA-10; EPA and Hot Works and a monetary stipend, dispersed in milestones throughout training

Participants will receive individualized job coaching during training and up to 90 days after you start your job

Participants will receive job placement support into full-time benefitted roles as entry-level HVAC Heat Pump Installer/Technician's with local employers in the Greater Boston Area

