

LOOKING FOR A FRESH START?

Interested in learning how to work in a professional kitchen?

Jump-start your career with the Teaching Kitchen, a FREE food service job training program at Community Servings!

Our 12-week, hands-on program includes:

- An understanding + supportive environment
- Chef-led kitchen + classroom instruction
- Training for the ServSafe® certification exam
- Real work experience
- Job readiness classes
- Resume + job placement assistance for one year

The best part? You'll help us make meals for neighbors in need while learning to work in a professional kitchen.

NEW CLASSES STARTING EVERY 6-8 WEEKS

Some applicants may qualify to earn an hourly wage while learning!

To apply, contact Allison at teachingkitchen@servings.org or call 617.522.7777.

This program is supported by private donations, grants, and the Neighborhood Jobs Trust of the City of Boston.